

AFTERCOLLEGE FOR UNIVERSITIES

AfterCollege is the largest career network specializing in recruitment at the college level.

AfterCollege delivers targeted employer job content to college students through a network of 1,100+ academic partnerships at the nation's top colleges and universities. AfterCollege's audience of student job seekers ranges from undergraduates to PhDs, 95% of whom have Bachelors degrees or higher and 84% having GPAs of 3.0 or above.

TESTIMONIALS

"We are a small department and lack the manpower to continuously manage our web site. Through AfterCollege, employers can directly post jobs onto our site. This saves us time and effort, providing a necessary and valuable service for our students." □ □ □

- Dr. Jonathan Doan,
Stanford University

"The Economics Department at MIT added AfterCollege's tool to our website recently, and we have been very satisfied with it. The tool looks professional and is very easy for students and administrators to use. The support provided by the staff at AfterCollege has been excellent..." □ □ □

- Gary King,
MIT Economics Department

"I love your company and what it does for students. You are providing a very valuable service for the job seeking public. Keep up the good work." □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

- S. Sakahara, Student,
San Jose State University

"[We] look forward to having a long productive relationship. Hopefully in the near future, other departments at Georgetown will also be taking advantage of your services." □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

- A. Ammerman,
Georgetown University

Targeted Job Opportunities

AfterCollege delivers targeted employer job content to student job seekers. Students can research local or regional jobs or do a nationwide search for jobs that are posted on the AfterCollege network by going to www.aftercollege.com. Students can also receive custom employment information via job feeds that are delivered to them through their university career centers, professors or student groups.

Internship Opportunities

AfterCollege lists hundreds of internship opportunities from employers throughout North America. Students can search for internships by state, industry, keyword and even by zip code.

To do an internship search, go to: <http://www.aftercollege.com/jobseekers/internships/>

Grad Student Opportunities

AfterCollege has hundreds of opportunities from employers who are interested in graduate-level students. Many of these positions are exclusively posted on AfterCollege and are targeted to students who are getting their Master's degrees and PhDs.

To view these opportunities, go to: <http://www.aftercollege.com/jobseekers/phd/>

Email Updates

AfterCollege can deliver daily, weekly or bi-weekly job updates to student job seekers. These email job updates can be targeted to students registered at university career centers, student groups or at individual academic departments.

Customized Job Sites

AfterCollege can customize a job site for your university's career center or we can build individual sites for each of your academic programs. Each site will have targeted job information relevant to each program's discipline and audience of students.

Contact us to find out how to set up a custom job site, or job sites, for your college or university.
